Eco Elite Summit 2027

One Room. Big Ideas. Meaningful Connections.

Following the success of our inaugural Eco Elite Summit in 2026, Go Green Now will bring the sustainability community back together for an even bigger and better experience in 2027.

Eco Elite 2027 will bring together over 150 sustainability leaders, eco-friendly business owners, forward-thinking businesses, innovators and elite change-makers to share ideas, explore solutions, and build the relationships needed to drive meaningful progress and ultimately create change.

Taking place as part of London Climate Action Week, this all-day event will combine thought-provoking discussions, interactive workshops, networking, and a vibrant, free-flowing exhibition experience, creating a platform for people and businesses working towards a more sustainable future.

We are inviting ambitious brands and innovative businesses like yours to join us as a sponsor or exhibitor.

Put Your Brand At The Heart Of The Conversation

Sustainability challenges cannot be solved in isolation. They require collaboration between businesses, industry experts, innovators, and the people driving change on the ground. The Eco Elite Summit creates the space for these conversations to happen.

As a sponsor or exhibitor you will have the opportunity to:

- Raise your profile among a sustainability-focused audience.
- Showcase your sustainable solutions to people and businesses exploring new ways to create positive environmental impact.
- Demonstrate your expertise by supporting the discussions and experiences shaping the sustainability agenda.
- Be part of London Climate Action Week, connecting your brand with a wider programme of climate-focused activity.
- Support meaningful progress by helping bring the sustainability community together.
